Employee of the Month

What can be said about this month's employee of the month that hasn't been said before? Marilyn is no stranger to this award. She is dedicated, hard working and just an all around wonderful person. She is there to greet everyone with a warm smile. She does whatever she can to help out and to make others' days better. She is patient, kind and dependable. Marilyn was nominated this month for her efforts to make new residents feel welcome and to find a table to sit at in the dining room. She chooses to leave the desk to walk them in and find them someone to eat with. Marilyn, thank you, for your attention to the small things.
